

Michigan Progressive Metal Outfit FROM BLUE TO GRAY To

Embark On ‘The Out Of The Darkness Tour’

September 5, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mt Pleasant MI – Michigan quintet From Blue To Gray is set to bring its signature blend of technical progressive metal to the mid-west this fall with ‘The Out Of The Darkness Tour’ in support of its sophomore record Abstention Of Interference, beginning October 5th and ending October 19th. This is scheduled to be the first of several tours in support of the Jamie King produced effort.

On recording Abstention Of Interference and working with renowned metal producer Jamie King, guitarist Tim Drexler had this to say, “Working with Jamie was the joy of my career. He is not only a highly skilled producer, but also, he truly cares about making a record he’s working on the very best it can be. He proved to be a wealth of knowledge and I couldn’t be more proud of the work we did together.” Abstention Of Interference features guest guitar appearances from Dustie Waring of Between The Buried And Me, and John Matos of Abiotic.

The tour is set to kick off in Portsmouth, OH and is routed to Tampa, FL and back, ending in the band’s hometown of Mt Pleasant, MI with local support at each show. Ticket links for each show will be available via each venue individually for $10 in advance, $12 the day of the show. On the band’s live show, National Rock Review said, “From Blue To Gray literally blew me away. They unleashed the hell hounds, screaming blood soaked words of relentless suffering. This band is tight, technical, and just my cup of tea.”
